

96.3 WEEI Cape Cod and NESN To Broadcast Cape Cod Baseball League Games

By John Garner, Jr.
CCBL Director of Broadcasting

For the 11th season, Sports Radio 96.3 WEEI Cape Cod will broadcast a Cape League Game of the Week, beginning with Orleans at Hyannis, Monday, June 13 at 6 pm

Larry Egan and John Garner, who called games in 2002 on Cool 102, 2003-06 on PIXY 103 and 2008-09 on 95.1 WXTK, return as broadcasting duo for WEEI Cape Cod, the All-Sports radio station which also carries Red Sox, Celtics, sports talk radio and Fox Sports radio and Reed Becker, Max Kates and Kaitlin Gelhaus will add out-of-town scores and calls to the bullpen.

"The Cape League is one of our area's most precious jewels," said Kevin Matthews, VP/Programming, iHeartMedia Multi-Platform Group - Cape Cod. "For generations, college athletes ventured to our ballparks showcasing the best amateur talent in the country. With many CCBL alumni on Major League rosters, no doubt when you watch a game today, you'll be seeing stars of tomorrow! iHeartMedia is proud, once again, to carry on this great tradition by broadcasting Cape League Game of the Week on Cape Cod's Sports Radio 96.3 with Larry Egan & John Garner. We look forward to partnering with league for many years to come!"

Five games including the CCBL All-Star Game will be televised on New England Sports Network (NESN), Channel 51 or 851 HD on Comcast Cable and the All-Star Game will also be broadcast on WCAI and the Cape & Islands NPR stations (90.1, 91.1, 94.3 FM)

Cape League Updates with Becker, Kates and Gelhaus will be broadcast on 95.1 WXTK every weekday morning Mon-Fri during 7 a.m. newscasts.

All Cape Cod Baseball League regular season and playoff games are web cast by team internet broadcasters. To access team broadcasts, go to www.capecodbaseball.org
